Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God Mass Schedule

December 31st: 6 pm
January 1st: 10 am

The Church Office will be closed through 1/1/2020
NO Mass or Communion Service on 12/30
NO Adoration on 12/31

Starting NEXT Sunday

The Armchair Mystic-Being a Pray-er:
Jan 5th, 12th, 19th, 26th

Wayne Vedeckis—School Library— 9:30 am-10:30 am

This course is based upon the book, The Armchair Mystic, written by Mark Thibodeaux, SJ. The style is light, engaging, and sometimes whimsical. The maturation of a person in levels of prayer is described as: 1) “talking at” God, 2) “talking with” God, 3) “listening to” God, and 4) “being with” God. Included are discussions of formula prayers, spontaneous prayer, meditation, contemplation, Lectio Divina, and how to “pray without ceasing” (1 Thes 5:17). Also included are suggestions on how to improve one’s prayer life by eliminating obstacles and distractions that inhibit effective prayer.

Prayer to the Holy Family

O Jesus, only-begotten Son of the Eternal Father, well-beloved Son of the Blessed Virgin and foster Child of St. Joseph, we most fervently implore Thee, through Mary Thine ever-blessed Mother and St. Joseph Thy foster father, take our children under Thy special charge and enclose them in the love of Thy Sacred Heart. They are the children of Thy Father in Heaven, created after His own image; they are Thy possession, for Thou hast purchased them with Thy Precious Blood; they are temples of the Holy Ghost, who sanctified them in Baptism and implanted in their hearts the virtues of faith, hope and charity.

O most loving Jesus, rule and guide them, that they may live according to the holy Catholic faith, that they may not waver in their confidence in Thee and that they may ever remain faithful to Thy love.

O Mary, Blessed Mother of Jesus, grant to our children a place in thy pure maternal heart! Spread over them thy protecting mantle when danger threatens their innocence; keep them firm when they are about to stray from the path of virtue; and should they have the misfortune of falling into mortal sin, oh, then raise them up again, reconcile them with thy Divine Son and restore them to Sanctifying Grace.

And thou, O holy foster father St. Joseph, do not abandon our children! Protect them from the assaults of the wicked enemy and deliver them from all dangers of soul and body.

O dear parents of the holy Child Jesus! Intercede for us parents also, that we may bring up our children in the love and fear of God and one day attain with them the Beatific Vision. Amen.

Thank You

A most heartfelt to all of the vocalists and instrumentalists that contributed to the lovely Christmas music at the Masses on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day: Jason Lane and Morgan Dugas who directed the choirs; instrumentalists, Natalie Fitzgerald (horn), Braden Eymard (horn), Julia Rossano (viola), Wesley Romano (trumpet); cantors, Julia Rossano, Cynthia Davidson, & Alyssa Hernandez; the St. Joseph School Choir, St. Joseph Teen/Young Adult Choir, and the St. Joseph Christmas Choir. St. Augustine once observed, “I feel that our souls are moved to the ardor of piety by the sacred words more piously and powerfully when these words are sung than when they are not sung...” Thank you for lifting minds and hearts to our Lord.

Stewardship

"Best Buds"

Polishing off a latte, you're enjoying the relative quiet of your coffee shop's corner booth, when someone's cellphone hums just beyond the partition. An expectant young woman whispers hello then, with a squeal of laughter, pushes away from the table and rises from her chair. "Are you kidding me? Are you kidding me? Unbelievable! When? When are you due? I can't believe it." Though you don't know her, the news is obvious. A friend or relative of this young mother-to-be has called with news of her own. She, too, is expecting a baby. Great news for anyone, it must be especially true for close friends who anticipate such blessing at exactly the same time—like the lady at the coffee shop and her caller, and like the mothers of Jesus and John.

"During those days Mary set out and traveled to the hill country in haste to a town of Judah, where she entered the house of Zechariah and greeted Elizabeth. When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, 'Most blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For at the moment the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. Blessed are you who believed that what was spoken to you by the Lord would be fulfilled.' "

Respect Life Banquet

Each year the Knights sponsor a Respect Life Poster contest for grades 5-12 and invite the students of our Church and Parish to participate. The winners and their families are treated to an awards banquet. This year Taylor Gautreaux was our speaker. Taylor shared how learning of an adoption within her own family sparked her passion to serve the pro life Ministry. She attends the March for Life in DC, speaks to legislators, and supports local ministries like Restoration House in Hammond that serves women in crisis pregnancy situations. To close the night some of our teens attending this year's March led a Respect Life Rosary. We want to thank the Knights of Columbus for their generosity, Diane Pepitone of Heavenly Gifts for helping with the awards. Taylor Gautreaux for speaking, the families that took the time to attend the banquet, as well as the catechists, SJS religion teachers, and students that participated in the Poster contest this year.

Salvation in Daily Life

This Sunday is the feast of the Holy Family, which comes on the first Sunday after Christmas Day. Today's feast celebrates how the humanity of Jesus (including his entire family life) has brought saving significance into the daily rhythms of our human family life.

The scriptures offer instruction and encouragement on how to share—within our families, parish families, and the wider human family—the love that God shares with us in Jesus. Selections from Sirach, Psalm 128, and Colossians encourage us to reflect divine love and thus find holiness in all our human relationships. The reading from Matthew's Gospel offers a living example of love in the actions Joseph took to protect his young family from danger and to nurture them within the larger family of faith of their time. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

Today's Readings

First Reading — Those who honor and comfort their parents shall never be forgotten (Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14).

Psalms — Blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways (Psalm 128).

Second Reading — You are called into one body. Bear with one another; forgive one another; let Christ's peace control you (Colossians 3:12-21 [12-17]).

Gospel — Joseph rose, took the child and his mother, and fled to Egypt (Matthew 2:13-15, 19-23).

Monica's Journey

"Monica's Journey" is a ministry of St. Joseph Catholic Church for women who struggle to find answers in the midst of difficult relationships or traumatic experiences in their lives. This ministry gives them a welcoming and non-judgmental place to find the hope and healing they need. Meetings are held in the evening during the week for 90 minutes. Members of other denominations are welcome. This is a strictly confidential group and a confidentiality statement must be signed by all members. The place and time of meetings will be disclosed after initial contact is made with the group facilitator. Voicemail: Please leave a message and your call will be returned as soon as possible. (985) 467-9520.

Healing Hearts

Healing Hearts: A Catholic support group for WOMEN, whose relationships have been negatively impacted by the pornography addiction or sexual addiction of a loved one. This may include a spouse, boyfriend, family member or friend. Strict confidentiality is observed by all members. Meetings are held on a weekly basis. Contact 985-401-2010 for more information and respond to the prompting.

Healing from Divorce Group

If you are separated or divorced, the Church cares about you. The loss of a relationship through separation or divorce poses one of the most difficult transitions a person can face. As people journey through a divorce, they face the stress of emotions, life changes, and developing a way to live a new life. As a Church, we are called to imitate Jesus Christ, who always sought to heal the brokenhearted. St. Joseph now has a new ministry for this purpose. For more information please contact Angela Perrin at 985-318-4927.
