November 17, 2019 Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, formerly referred to as "Christ the King," was established by Pope Pius XI in 1925 as an antidote to secularism, a way of life which leaves God out of man's thinking and living and organizes his life as if God did not exist. The feast is intended to proclaim in a striking and effective manner Christ's royalty over individuals, families, society, governments, and nations. -catholicculture.org

St. Joseph's parish family is kicking off our Stewardship of Prayer series with this invitation to prayer and feasting on the last Sunday of our Liturgical year! Join in proclaiming Jesus as our King and Lord with Thanksgiving!!!

NEXT SUNDAY!

A EUCHARISTIC PROCESSION CELEBRATING
JESUS AS KING OF THE UNIVERSE!

Meet at the Church at 4pm, November 24th

EXPOSITION, PROCESSION, AND BENEDICTION

Led by Fr. McDuffie around our church grounds, ending with Benediction at 5pm

Life is Hard, But Have no Fear

Today's readings take a fearless look at reality and reach a conclusion that we all know: life is hard. The prophet Malachi preaches fire and brimstone, warning us that evildoers will perish in flames. Saint Paul offers his own warning to the Thessalonians: keep busy, but never become a busybody. He reminds Christians that the apostles themselves worked in "toil and drudgery" as a model for how we ought to contribute to our community. The Gospel returns to the apocalyptic tone of Malachi, describing the utter chaos of the end-times. We will know the end is near when violence, catastrophe, and hatred dominate the earth. But we must not fear! God's saving plan brings peace to our hearts. Malachi speaks of the sun's "healing rays," and Jesus himself promises to protect every hair on our heads.

Today's Readings

First Reading — For those who fear the name of the Lord, the sun of justice will arise (Malachi 3:19-20a).

Psalm — The Lord comes to rule the earth with justice (Psalm 98).

Second Reading — Those who are living in idleness are urged to earn their own living (2 Thessalonians 3:7-12).

Gospel — Jesus foretells the destruction of Jerusalem, the persecution of his followers (Luke 21:5-19).

Monica's Journey

"Monica's Journey" is a ministry of St. Joseph Catholic Church for women who struggle to find answers in the midst of difficult relationships or traumatic experiences in their lives. This ministry gives them a welcoming and non-judgmental place to find the hope and healing they need. Meetings are held in the evening during the week for 90 minutes. Members of other denominations are welcome. This is a strictly confidential group and a confidentiality statement must be signed by all members. The place and time of meetings will be disclosed after initial contact is made with the group facilitator. Voicemail: Please leave a message and your call will be returned as soon as possible. (985) 467-9520.

Healing Hearts

Healing Hearts: A Catholic support group for WOMEN, whose relationships have been negatively impacted by the pornography addiction or sexual addiction of a loved one. This may include a spouse, boyfriend, family member or friend. Strict confidentiality is observed by all members. Meetings are held on a weekly basis. Contact 985-401-2010 for more information and respond to the prompting.

Healing from Divorce Group

If you are separated or divorced, the Church cares about you. The loss of a relationship through separation or divorce poses one of the most difficult transitions a person can face. As people journey through a divorce, they face the stress of emotions, life changes, and developing a way to live a new life. As a Church, we are called to imitate Jesus Christ, who always sought to heal the brokenhearted. St. Joseph now has a new ministry for this purpose. For more information please contact Angela Perrin at 985-318-4927.

Rev. Anthony Odiong, pastor of St. Anthony of Padua of Luling, is from Calabar, Southern Nigeria. He underwent seminary formation in Nigeria and was ordained a priest on November 13, 1993. After ordination he did some pastoral work, taught high school, and also taught philosophy at the regional seminary. At the invitation of then Bishop Aymond, he was appointed to the Diocese of Austin, Texas where he was assigned associate pastor of St. Mary's of the Assumption in West, Texas. Thereafter, he was appointed Director of Campus Ministry at St. Peter's Catholic Student Center at Baylor University. He served in that capacity until he went to Rome to study for a doctorate degree in Dogmatic Theology. Fr. Anthony holds a Masters in Theology from Franciscan University of Steubenville, Ohio and continues to work on his doctorate degree.

John LaBriola is the founder of the Catholic Family Foundation, an organization committed to healing, strengthening and advancing Catholic families. He is a dynamic speaker who passionately communicates the truth of Catholicism in a loving and accessible manner, without apology, without compromise. John's goal is to help Catholics of all ages deepen their love and knowledge of the one, true Church.
