October 18, 2020 The Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

STEWARDSHIP OF MINISTRY

My name is Lisa Kennedy and I have been asked to give my personal testimony about the adult formation class titled "Called and Gifted". This was a class I was invited to take here years ago with others to learn how to better discern how I was gifted by the Holy Spirit at Baptism and Confirmation to respond to the calling God has placed on my life. Before I took this class, I thought I knew what I was supposed to do with my life. I had chosen a career in healthcare. I chose the vocation of marriage, and I was a mother, but I had fallen out of communion with God. Like many, these areas of my life kept me very busy and somewhat distracted to take the time to think about what "God has purposed for me" and HOW I already was equipped with everything I needed to carry out the calling He uniquely has for me.

To me, these questions were very deep and definitely ones that I welcomed assistance with. I accepted the invitation. I learned that these spiritual gifts, also called "charisms", took many different forms. They ranged from administration, celibacy, craftsmanship, encouragement, evangelism, extraordinary faith, giving, healing, hospitality, intercessory prayer, knowledge, leadership, mercy, missionary, music, pastoring, prophecy, service, teaching, voluntary poverty, wisdom and writing. Some of the most profound things that I learned were that these gifts were not necessarily things that were my "natural talents" or things that I learned to be "good at". Actually, they were not really about me at all. They were not mine to keep but to give away. Our own unique gifts from the Holy Spirit are meant for others. Through them we are a channel of God's love for others. In using these gifts, we are able to build up the Kingdom of God.

I was very relieved to know I was not gifted in certain areas such as craftsmanship or music. I love these gifts in others and I receive many graces from those who are gifted in these ways. Through the Called & Gifted Program, I have interviewed teenagers that are excited to know what their gifts may be as they are about to enter their adult life. I have also interviewed a widow in her 80's that had been wondering for years how God was calling her to be of service to others the remainder of her life. Through this class I found that mercy and encouragement were my two top charisms. So, these are the areas I focus on to be a channel of God's love to others. The discernment process of your spiritual gifts is ongoing and goes deeper as you discover how you can be of service to others.

THE SACRAMENTS

The great sacraments of the Church—Baptism, Confirmation, the Eucharist, Reconciliation, the Anointing of the Sick, Matrimony, and Holy Orders—have endured for thousands of years and structured countless lives. Everything in the Church's life comes from and returns to them. But there is far more to these ancient rites than meets the eye.

In this follow-up to The Mass, Bishop Barron looks at the great sacraments of the Church in all their theological depth, spiritual effects, and pastoral promise. The Sacraments will help you understand these signs and channels of grace and discover the secret behind their persistence down the ages: the presence and power of the Savior himself.

The Gospel of Life: A Brief Summary

The prophetic papal encyclical Evangelium vitae (The Gospel of Life) was written by Pope St. John Paul II in 1995 to reaffirm the value and inviolability of every human life and to appeal to all people to respect, protect, love, and serve every human life. The following is a brief overview of this important document.

The Gospel of Life is at the heart of Jesus' saving message to the world. Through the Incarnation and birth of Christ, God reveals to us the dignity of all human life. Human life, as a gift of God, is sacred and inviolable. The Son of God has united himself with every human being and desires for us to share eternal life with him. For this reason, direct attacks on human life, such as abortion and euthanasia, are always unacceptable. Yet, sadly we see new and expanding threats to human life emerging on an alarming scale. These new threats to life are often justified, protected, and even promoted by our laws and culture.

Not only must human life not be taken, but it must be protected with loving concern. Each of us is made in the image and likeness of God, and we reflect his glory in the world. God made the human person with the capacity to love and reason and share in a relationship with the Creator. The human person bears an indelible imprint of God and is the pinnacle of all creation. The source of our dignity is not only linked to our creation by God, but to our final end and destiny to spend eternity with the Father. By accepting Christ as our Savior, despite our sinfulness, we can begin to share in eternal life even now.

Despite the grave threats to human life in the modern world, we, as the People of God, are called to place our faith in Jesus, the "Word of life" (1 Jn 1:1). As Christians, we have received the full truth about human life as proclaimed by the very person of Jesus. In sharing in the lowliest and most vulnerable conditions of human life—even death on a cross—Jesus shows us that life is always good. The true meaning of our lives is found in giving and receiving love. It is only through this understanding of a sincere gift of self that human sexuality and procreation reach their true and full significance.

God holds the lives of all people in his gentle and loving care, giving meaning and value to any sufferings that we may bear. Despite the mystery which surrounds suffering and death, they can become saving events as we unite them with Christ's sacrifice. Truly great must be the value of human life if the Son of God has made it the instrument of our salvation.

While the roots of violence against life go all the way back to Genesis, when Cain took the life of his brother Abel, our modern world is suffering under a culture of death. Scientific and technological advances and an increasingly secularized world have led to an eclipse of the value of human life. However, respect for life requires that science and technology should always be at the service of the human person and his integral development. We must reject systems of structuralized sin which value efficiency and productivity over human persons.

Governments and international institutions promote abortion and euthanasia as marks of progress and freedom. But this is a false and perverse understanding in which freedom is equated with absolute individualism. True freedom is inherently relational, recognizing that God has entrusted us to one another. As cultures and societies fail to recognize these objective truths, everything becomes relative and all principles are called into question—even the fundamental right to life. However, the blood of Christ's sacrifice remains our constant hope. Christ's gift of himself on the cross reveals how precious life truly is and gives us the strength to commit ourselves to building a culture of life. Christ's blood, shed for us, promises that in God's plan death will be no more, and life will be victorious.

Society as a whole must respect, defend and promote the dignity of every human person, at every moment and in every condition of that person's life. Our lives are a gift from God and ultimately belong to him. He has sole authority over life and death. We are therefore called to reverence and love every human person, loving our neighbors as ourselves. It is our responsibility to care for and protect human life, especially the lives of the most vulnerable among us.

Having received the gift of the Gospel of Life, we are the people of life and a people for life. It is our duty to proclaim the Gospel of Life to the world. To proclaim Jesus is to proclaim life itself. Gratitude and joy at the incomparable dignity of the human person impel us to bring the Gospel of life to the hearts of all people and make it penetrate every part of society. In every child which is born and in every person who lives or dies we see the image of God's glory. We celebrate this glory in every human being, a sign of the living God, an icon of Jesus Christ.

This class we offer at St. Joseph's has been well put together by the Catherine of Siena Institute using a video series for us to follow along easily in the classroom setting or at home. There are three parts to the discernment process:

- 1) The series starts with an introduction to God's invitation to deepen our relationship with Him, understand our identity in Him, and receive our mission through Him by exploring gifts discernment.
- 2) In the second step of the series you will be invited to take an on-line inventory of your gifts through a series of questions.
- 3) Part three prepares you for a discernment interview with a parishioner trained to help you discern your gifts so that you can begin to experiment with the gift of your choice as a means of discerning your primary charisms and call.

Who should take this class and why? This is for anyone 18 years and older who is wanting clarity on what ministry here at St Joseph's or in the world would best fit for YOUR gifts.

We meet during Sunday Formation hour 9:30-10:30 in St Joseph's School. Remember if you miss a class you are able to follow along at home on-line. It is not too late to start this year as we will journey together through this process in both the Fall and Spring formation.

Hope to discern with you.

In God Alone

Isaiah speaks to us today of Cyrus, King of Persia, anointed by the Lord. God calls Cyrus by name and leads him in service to the Israelites. In this passage we hear that it is the Lord who gives Cyrus his title, who arms him against his enemies, and who opens doors and unbars gates before him. And God does all of this so that the people will know that “I am the LORD,” and that “there is none besides me” (Isaiah 45:6).

Paul opens his letter with essentially the same notion—that in God alone we find our grace and peace. Paul also gives thanks to God on our behalf, calling to mind our work of faith, hope, and love.

And in the familiar Gospel reading, Jesus tells the Pharisees to give to Caesar what is Caesar’s and to God what is God’s.

Today's Readings

First Reading — The LORD said to Cyrus, his anointed, “I am the LORD, there is no other” (Isaiah 45:1, 4-6).

Psalms — Give the Lord glory and honor (Psalm 96).

Second Reading — Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians: We thank God always for all of you (1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b).

Gospel — Give to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and to God what is God’s (Matthew 22:15-21).

Monica's Journey

“Monica’s Journey” is a ministry of St. Joseph Catholic Church for women who struggle to find answers in the midst of difficult relationships or traumatic experiences in their lives. This ministry gives them a welcoming and non-judgmental place to find the hope and healing they need. Meetings are held in the evening during the week for 90 minutes. Members of other denominations are welcome. This is a strictly confidential group and a confidentiality statement must be signed by all members. The place and time of meetings will be disclosed after initial contact is made with the group facilitator. Voicemail: Please leave a message and your call will be returned as soon as possible. (985) 467-9520.

Healing Hearts

Healing Hearts: A Catholic support group for WOMEN, whose relationships have been negatively impacted by the pornography addiction or sexual addiction of a loved one. This may include a spouse, boyfriend, family member or friend.

Strict confidentiality is observed by all members. Meetings are held on a weekly basis. Contact 985-401-2010 for more information and respond to the prompting.

Healing from Divorce Group

If you are separated or divorced, the Church cares about you. The loss of a relationship through separation or divorce poses one of the most difficult transitions a person can face. As people journey through a divorce, they face the stress of emotions, life changes, and developing a way to live a new life. As a Church, we are called to imitate Jesus Christ, who always sought to heal the brokenhearted. St. Joseph now has a new ministry for this purpose. For more information please contact Angela Perrin at 985-318-4927.

As patroness of our country, Mary our mother, pray with us and for us. Amen.

MARIAN SERVANTS® of the Visitation

Say "Thanks!"

It's polite to say thank you when you receive a gift. God has given us the greatest gift of all— eternal life and unconditional love in Jesus Christ. How can you say thanks? One way is to share the love you have received with others who may feel unloved and alone in their troubles. Stephen Ministers say thanks to God by caring for others. Open your hear to God's calling. Use gifts that God has given you and become a Stephen Minister and say "Thanks!" Find out more about Stephen Ministry by talking with one of our Stephen Leaders: Anita Perrin at (985) 687-4458 or Ronnie Perrin (985) 507-9765.

Consecration to St. Joseph

The Consecration to St. Joseph is going strong. It's not too late to join one of the groups or start at home. The books are available at Heavenly Gifts. Note: If you are interested, Fr. Calloway has daily videos on the Consecration to St. Joseph which can be viewed online. Simply go to Youtube.com and then search for whatever day you'd like to see (e.g., "consecration to st joseph day 1 live stream"). These videos were done by Fr. Calloway during his online group Consecration to St. Joseph and run between 30-60 minutes depending, on the day.
