The Society of Our Lady of the Most Holy Trinity SOLT

Dear Parishioners of St. Joseph's:

Thank you for your warm welcome and generous support for the SOLT missions. May God bless you for all the ways you witness Christ to others and encourage those around you to live their faith. Thank you for welcoming me and supporting the work of SOLT through your prayers, consideration of a volunteer opportunity and financial help. Be assured of my prayers for you.

In the hearts of Jesus and Mary,
Fr Larry Tucker, SOLT

Special Collection for the Bishops Emergency Disaster Fund

Prompted by recent hurricanes such as Ian and Fiona and the calamities that have followed, Bishop Duca along with other bishops in the United States are asking their parishes to take up a special collection this weekend to support the Church and humanitarian needs that have arisen from these disasters.

Thank you for your generosity!

Made Right Before God

Although the opening lines of today's first reading claim that the Lord "knows no favorites" (Sirach 35:15) and is "not unduly partial toward the weak" (35:16), the remainder of the passage makes it clear that the Lord does indeed pay special attention to the weak, the oppressed, and the orphans and widows. The psalmist reiterates: "The Lord hears the cry of the poor" (see Psalm 34:18). In the Gospel, Jesus claims that a tax collector is more justified in his prayer for mercy than the Pharisee, whose prayer was an account of his own righteous deeds. Jesus' point could not have been clearer: tax collectors in the Jewish society of Jesus' day were not just lowly; they were considered outcasts and cheaters. They collected taxes for the hated Romans and almost certainly collected enough to assure a generous income for themselves. Tax collectors were among society's outcasts; didn't this one just admit his own sinfulness? How could a tax collector be "justified" (that is, made right) before God, while the Pharisee was not? Why would God even listen to the prayer of a tax collector? This surely was a surprise, upsetting common assumptions about righteousness.

Today's Readings

First Reading — The LORD is a God of justice who hears the cry of the oppressed, the orphan, the widow, the lowly (Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18).

Psalm — The Lord hears the cry of the poor (Psalm 34).

Second Reading — The crown of righteousness awaits me (2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18).

Gospel — The tax collector stood at a distance, beat his breast, and prayed, "O God, be merciful to me, a sinner" (Luke 18:9-14).

Monica's Journey

Monica's Journey is a ministry of St. Joseph's Catholic Church for women who struggle from the brokenness of difficult relationships, abuse, or traumatic experiences in their lives. This ministry gives them a welcoming and non-judgmental place to find the hope and healing they need. Meetings are held in the evening during the week for 90 minutes. Members of other denominations are welcome. This is a strictly confidential group and a confidentiality statement must be signed by all members. The place and time of meetings will be disclosed after initial contact is made with the group facilitator. Please leave a voicemail or send a text message to (985) 467-9520 for further information. "Wait for the Lord; Be strong and let your heart take courage: Yes, wait for the Lord!" Psalm 27:14.

Healing from Divorce Group

If you are separated or divorced, the Church cares about you. The loss of a relationship through separation or divorce poses one of the most difficult transitions a person can face. As people journey through a divorce, they face the stress of emotions, life changes, and developing a way to live a new life. As a Church, we are called to imitate Jesus Christ, who always sought to heal the brokenhearted. St. Joseph now has a ministry for this purpose. For more information please contact Angela Perrin at 985-318-4927.

PAL (Parents of Addicted Loved-ones) is a support group open to parents and other adult family members who have a loved one struggling with addiction.

We meet every 2nd & 4th Thursday from 6-7:30 pm in the Ministry Building (St. Catherine Room).

For more information contact Mary Jo B. at 985-320-3010 or Paige B. 985-981-8010 . www.palgroup.org.

Stewardship

Who can you most identify with in today's Gospel—the self-glorified Pharisee or the humble, repenting tax collector? Are you an exemplar Catholic on the outside, but on the inside, not so much? Or maybe you are “Uber Catholic”! Is that a bad thing? Only God knows for sure. If the stewardship way of life is easy and comfortable, step it up a notch! If you are not sure where you fall in the spectrum of Catholicity, a good way to assess is to review the spiritual and corporal works of mercy. Then, too, we have all the amazing lives of the Saints that we can study and imitate. God is going to meet us where we are at. He wants us to know him, to love him and to serve him in this life so we can spend eternity with him in heaven. So, whether you are Uber Catholic or struggle reciting a Hail Mary, just talk to God, and let him do the heavy lifting.
