School News

St. Joseph School students were blessed to celebrate a special Mass with some heroes of the community! First Responders from the surrounding area attended our School Mass on September 14th. We were able to show our appreciation for all they do, and the sacrifices they give to help serve us in so many ways! Fr. McDuffie gave them a blessing in Mass and then the students showered them with cards, letters, and donuts in the gym.

WATCH THÉRÈSE

A pampered child from a middle-class 19th century French family, Therese Martin journeys to Rome to beg Pope Leo XIII for permission to enter the Carmelite monastery at the unheard-of age of 15. Once admitted she experiences the joys and rigors of monastic life, and makes the surprising yet simple discovery that holiness can be achieved by small acts of love and compassion – a spiritual path she calls her "Little Way."

LISTEN

THE CASE FOR JESUS BY DR. BRANT PITRE

Dr. Brant Pitre, Scripture scholar and bestselling author, uses biblical and historical evidence to bolster the "case for Jesus" by exposing the problems with the many false theories that have been introduced over the past hundred years, resulting in widespread skepticism about the reliability of Christian Faith. He tackles head-on questions like: Were the four Gospels written anonymously? Did Jesus claim to be God? Did Jesus fulfill the Jewish prophecies of the Messiah? and many more.

Care for Each Other

Don't delude yourselves, Jesus says through the parable of the rich man and Lazarus. We really are supposed to care for others. It is not enough to go to Mass and occasionally serve at a parish or outreach function. We cannot remain complacent and consider ourselves followers of Jesus. No matter how much or how little material wealth we have, we always have something to give—our time and attention, care, and, when possible, our money. The way we treat and care for others, especially the poor and vulnerable, is the manner in which we show our love of God. As disciples, we must “pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness.” Jesus calls us to see and respond to the least among us, because, as God's children, we are all part of one another.

Second Reading — Compete well for the faith. Keep the commandment until the appearance of the Lord Jesus (1 Timothy 6:11-16).

Monica's Journey

Monica's Journey is a ministry of St. Joseph's Catholic Church for women who struggle from the brokenness of difficult relationships, abuse, or traumatic experiences in their lives. This ministry gives them a welcoming and non-judgmental place to find the hope and healing they need. Meetings are held in the evening during the week for 90 minutes. Members of other denominations are welcome. This is a strictly confidential group and a confidentiality statement must be signed by all members. The place and time of meetings will be disclosed after initial contact is made with the group facilitator. Please leave a voicemail or send a text message to (985) 467-9520 for further information. “Wait for the Lord; Be strong and let your heart take courage: Yes, wait for the Lord!” Psalm 27:14.

Healing from Divorce Group

If you are separated or divorced, the Church cares about you. The loss of a relationship through separation or divorce poses one of the most difficult transitions a person can face. As people journey through a divorce, they face the stress of emotions, life changes, and developing a way to live a new life. As a Church, we are called to imitate Jesus Christ, who always sought to heal the brokenhearted. St. Joseph now has a ministry for this purpose. For more information please contact Angela Perrin at 985-318-4927.

PAL (Parents of Addicted Loved-ones) is a support group open to parents and other adult family members who have a loved one struggling with addiction.

We meet every 2nd & 4th Thursday from 6-7:30 pm in the Ministry Building (St. Catherine Room).

For more information contact Mary Jo B. at 985-320-3010 or Paige B. 985-981-8010 . www.palgroup.org.

Stewardship

Chasm Closers

Reflecting on today's readings, one might feel a sense of urgency. It is so easy, once in a comfortable state, to stay there and enjoy the moment. Moments can add up quickly, and pretty soon comfort begets leisure, and leisure begets lifestyle, and lifestyle begets haughtiness, and there before us, is a chasm, between ourselves and the poor beggar, Lazarus, in today's Gospel. Someone once said, God loves us all right where we are, but He loves us too much to leave us there. There is a rich man and a Lazarus in all of our lives and each needs to know the love of God. As missionary disciples, we can help close the chasm by bridging the gap, but we can't be complacent, we must "pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience and gentleness" as St. Paul compels us to do so in the second reading. In stewardship we close the gap.

O COME ALL YE FAITHFUL!

Christmas may not be yet on your radar, but the choirs are beginning to prepare music for this joyous season. Come, join us! This is a lovely way to prepare for and celebrate the birth of our Lord. It is also an excellent time to give choir a try. We hope you will find the experience fulfilling and will continue after Christmas, but there is no contract, so after trying choir you may decide to sing from the pew. Is God asking you to serve him in the choir? We welcome vocalists and instrumentalists. See the choir groups and their rehearsal times below and prayerfully consider lifting your voice or instrument to the Lord. Please call Rhonda at the church office (386-3749 ext. 209) for more information.

Christmas Choir (Liturgical Choir) will sing at the 7:00 pm Mass on Christmas Eve. High school students and adults are welcome. Rehearsals are on Sundays 9:30-10:30 am. In the Choir Room.

The Voice of the Holy Innocents Youth Choir, and SJS Choir will be singing for the 4 pm Christmas Mass on Christmas Eve. VHI meets on Mondays from 4:00-5:00 pm in the Choir Room and welcomes any students of kindergarten age or above.

St. Dunstan's Ringers (Bell Choir) will ring at the 7:00 pm Christmas Eve Mass. Rehearsals are held in the Choir Room each Monday 6:30-8:00 pm.
