Sacred Music History—the Music of the Psalms: Sept 13th, 20th, 27th, Oct. 11th, 18th, 25th

Rhonda Sorg-Rossano (Choir Room)

We sing at least one Psalm at nearly every Mass—the Responsorial Psalm between the reading of the Old Testament Scripture and the Epistle or Gospel. We also sing a Psalm every time we sing the Communion antiphon. Recently, we have heard additional Psalms prayed in chant as Mass begins and during the Offertory as directed by the General Instruction of the Roman Missal. Why are the Psalms so important to our liturgy? The Book of Psalms comprised the hymnal of the Jewish people from the Old Testament to the New, and even into contemporary times. The worship practices of the early Christians, including the singing of the Psalms, grew organically from these Jewish roots. In this 6 wk study, we will explore the importance of the Psalms in our Liturgy and learn why the Psalms were sung, how they may have sounded in Old Testament times, and the meaning of the music of the Psalms; it's more than musical taste.

Typology: Sept 13th, 20th, 27th

Mike Fulmer (School Library)

Typology is the first and oldest method of Scripture study. Join Mike Fulmer as he leads a 3-part Bible study and unlocks many of the mysteries hidden in Old Testament Scripture.

Called & Gifted (fall)

with Lisa Kennedy
(Mrs. Notariano's Room)

The Called & Gifted process is designed to help Christians discern the presence of or "gratuitous gift". Charisms, or spiritual gifts, are special abilities given to all Christians by the Holy Spirit to give them the power both to represent Christ and to be a channel of God's goodness for people. Whether extraordinary or ordinary, all charisms ought to be exercised in the service of God (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 2003). Come and learn how discerning and using our charisms can change your life and the life of others, your parish, and the world.

St. Joseph, Pillar of Families

"After Christ, St. Joseph is the model of heroic manhood and the defender of marriage, chastity, and life itself."

How to Become Catholic - The RCIA Process

If you are interested in becoming Catholic or know of someone who is interested please call Ed or Julie Hanks at 985-351-3143 or email: stjrcia@gmail.com. The first step in the RCIA process is called Inquiry. Inquiry is an opportunity for you to ask questions about the faith in an open, non-judgmental, no-commitment atmosphere. Inquiry meetings started August 30th. People interested in becoming Catholic as well as Catholics with questions are welcome. Time: 9:30 am to 10:45 am or until all questions are answered. Location: Church, St. Benedict Room. Please see our website for more information.

ST JOSEPH CONFERENCE

Dear SVDP Supporters

I want to take this opportunity to sincerely thank you for the support you have shown toward our ministry of helping the poor in our community by assisting them with food, utility payments, and rental. We are continuing these efforts even in these difficult times of dealing with the Covid 19 crisis.

The pandemic has affected everyone in our community, whether it's our local businesses or every individual who is touched by lack of employment opportunities.

This situation has forced us to cancel our annual fundraiser event which is so important to supporting our ministry. Through your generosity and God's continuous blessings on our ministry, we will continue to provide for the poor in our community as much as possible.

This is not a solicitation letter, but please remember to keep us in your prayers and again thank you for your support.

Yours in Christ,

Tony Guagliardo, President SVDP Conference, Ponchatoula

Society of St Vincent de Paul Report: July 2020

We made 8 home visits serving 21 people

Delivered 8 bags of food from our Parish Food Pantry

Paid utility bills totaling $351.85 and $986.57 in other assistance including rent, fresh food, transportation needs, and other necessary household needs.

As always, we are grateful for your generosity that makes our work with the poor possible.

We are in need of new members due to the fact that some of our members have moved, and others have health issues that are preventing them from going on home visits. If you feel called to this ministry please come to a meeting and see what we do. Our next scheduled meetings are September 8th, 22nd

A Message of Love

In the final verses of today's Gospel reading Jesus says that when two or three are gathered in his name, "there am I in the midst of them" (Matthew 18:20). So we understand that fraternal correction is always undertaken with Jesus present to us.

Likewise, encouraging the good in others is not only the right thing for us to do, it is a necessity. The Lord tells the prophet Ezekiel that if he "does not speak out" to dissuade a person from evil, then he too will be held responsible.

We live in a "do your own thing" age when moral objectivity is often ignored. Clearly when the message we share with others is one of love, our motives cannot ever be misinterpreted. As St. Paul writes, "Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law" (Romans 13:10).

Today's Readings

First Reading — Warn the wicked and try to turn them from their ways (Ezekiel 33:7-9).

Psalms — If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 95).

Second Reading — Owe nothing to anyone, except mutual love (Romans 13:8-10).

Gospel — If two agree about anything for which they pray, it shall be granted to them (Matthew 18:15-20).

Monica's Journey

"Monica's Journey" is a ministry of St. Joseph Catholic Church for women who struggle to find answers in the midst of difficult relationships or traumatic experiences in their lives. This ministry gives them a welcoming and non-judgmental place to find the hope and healing they need. Meetings are held in the evening during the week for 90 minutes. Members of other denominations are welcome. This is a strictly confidential group and a confidentiality statement must be signed by all members. The place and time of meetings will be disclosed after initial contact is made with the group facilitator. Voicemail: Please leave a message and your call will be returned as soon as possible. (985) 467-9520.

Healing Hearts

Healing Hearts: A Catholic support group for WOMEN, whose relationships have been negatively impacted by the pornography addiction or sexual addiction of a loved one. This may include a spouse, boyfriend, family member or friend. Strict confidentiality is observed by all members. Meetings are held on a weekly basis. Contact 985-401-2010 for more information and respond to the prompting.

Healing from Divorce Group

If you are separated or divorced, the Church cares about you. The loss of a relationship through separation or divorce poses one of the most difficult transitions a person can face. As people journey through a divorce, they face the stress of emotions, life changes, and developing a way to live a new life. As a Church, we are called to imitate Jesus Christ, who always sought to heal the brokenhearted. St. Joseph now has a new ministry for this purpose. For more information please contact Angela Perrin at 985-318-4927.

Stewardship

"The Key to That Door"

Andrew Carnegie said, "Millionaires seldom smile." Of course, a roomful of thousand-aires might like the opportunity to see if it would be true for them. It does seem, though, that the great Scottish philanthropist was far from alone in his sentiment. "I have made many millions, but they have brought me no happiness" (Rockefeller). "The care of my fortune is enough to kill anyone" (Vanderbilt). "I am the most miserable man on earth" (Astor). "I was happier as a mechanic" (Henry Ford). When it fashions a person's mind and heart, wealth shuts as many doors as it opens, and one door is a great deal more important than all the rest.

"Jesus said to his disciples, 'Amen, I say to you, it will be hard for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of heaven. Again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.' When the disciples heard this, they were greatly astonished and said, 'Who then can be saved?' Jesus looked at them and said, 'For human beings this is impossible, but for God all things are possible.' Then Peter said to him in reply, 'We have given up everything and followed you. What will there be for us?' Jesus said to them, 'Amen, I say to you that you who have followed me, in the new age, when the Son of Man is seated on his throne of glory, will yourselves sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has given up houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands for the sake of my name will receive a hundred times more, and will inherit eternal life.' "

School News

St. Joseph School will be helping other Catholic schools impacted by Hurricane Laura. Students will participate in various activities to collect donations that will be used to purchase gift cards for families in need. If you would like to help, you can drop off (or mail) a monetary donation or gift card to the school office. Our students will be making prayer cards that will be sent with each gift card. Recommended stores (but not limited to) are Home Depot, Lowe's, Walmart, Target, etc.

Heavenly Credit Only!

We want to thank the following archangels for their help in maintaining the campus gardens during the month of August: Dale Snapp, Kelly Wolfe and Ron Huguet. And also the following angels who have adopted a plot of land to maintain on a regular basis: Jack McLain with help from mom, Robin. Josh & Juliana Heroman with help from mom and me-maw. Jamie and Wanda. Lane Drude with help from mom, Sarah. Libby Rabalais with help from mom & me-maw. Diane & Sandi.

Since my recent knee injury Buddy is overwhelmed so we need more weeders to assist us in keeping up the relatively large campus. We will also need pressure washer, hedgers and window washers in Oct. No child or grandchild in our school? No problem, we welcome anyone who wants to help maintain the House of the Lord Gardens. And working moms receive heavenly bonus points! Become a volunteer and receive equal pay with guaranteed lifetime job opportunities! Thanks and please contact me at marielord@gmail.com

Gardening Angels is out on COVID break! But will resume at a later date.
